

20th November 2020

Belief in Action:

A Celebration of a Child's Right to Have a Belief

Marian Switonski and Fez McLoughlin

RE and RRSA lead

Happy Children's Day!

- Today is Universal Children's Day.
- It is a special day where each member of state from the UN promote and celebrate children's rights.

Children's Rights

- Today we are also celebrating another important event which links to Article 14 from the United Nations. Conventions on the Rights of the Child:
 - Every child has the right to think and believe what they choose and to also practice their religion, as long as they are not stopping other people from enjoying their rights.
- What do we do at Carterhatch to show that we respect everyone's beliefs?

Happy Interfaith Week!

- Last week saw Interfaith Week (8-15 August 2020)
- This links into your right from Article 14.

Inter Faith
Week

Inter Faith Week

Celebrating a diverse society

Inter Faith Week's aims are to:

- Inter Faith Week helps strengthen relationships and understanding between people of different faiths and beliefs.
- Increase awareness of the different and distinct faith communities in the UK, in particular celebrating and building on the contribution which their members make to their neighbourhoods and to wider society
- Increase understanding between people of religious and non-religious belief

So why combine World's Children's Day with Inter-Faith Week?

They both provide an opportunity to:

CO-OPERATE/LEARN/ RESPECT/REFLECT/APPRECIATE/TALK/ CELEBRATE/
BE A COMMUNITY/LIVE IN HARMONY

In our lessons today, we will have a key word focus

- Y3 - Celebration
- Y4 - Equality
- Y5 - Appreciation
- Y6 - Harmony

School Value: Respect

British Value: Tolerance

A Right to your Beliefs – Faith or Non-Faith

Let's think about the right to a faith.

These are 6 world religions that we study at school.

Buddhism

Christianity

Hinduism

Islam

Judaism

Sikhism

A Right to your Beliefs – Faith or Non-Faith

If a person does not have a faith, what belief might they hold?

It could be:

A belief in a value that guides their life.

A belief in the way you live your life (but with no reward in the afterlife.)

A belief in the way you live your life with your family (custom/traditions) and people around you.

A belief on making correct choices based on reason and logic.

A belief in nature and the world around them as a place to respect and be.

Reflective poster

You will create a poster to reflect your right to your own belief whether it is a celebration of diversity of beliefs in school (year 3) or being part of our diverse city of London (year 6).

Year 3 – Your rights to a belief

Keyword: Celebration

Key question: Why is it important to celebrate our beliefs at school?

Title of artwork: A Celebration of Beliefs

School Value: Respect

British Value: Tolerance

Year 3 - A Celebration of Beliefs

Year 4 - Your rights to a belief

Keyword: Equality

Key question: How does equality make a community of diverse beliefs?

Title of artwork: A Community of Equality

School Value: Respect

British Value: Tolerance

A Community of Equality

Year 5 – Your rights to a belief

Keyword: Appreciation

Key question: How does our appreciation of others open a door to beliefs?

Title of artwork: A place of Mutual Appreciation

School Value: Respect

British Value: Tolerance

Carterhatch
Junior School

Year 5 - Appreciation

A Place of Mutual Appreciation

Friends to All

Ashton

Age 13

Friends to All. It shows two different people in the middle of the world. One is a Christian priest the other a Hindu young man. All the symbols show different religions all around the world.

Our poster shows no matter what religion we should all be friends. All the colours show that people are all different.

Year 6 - Your rights to a belief

Keyword: Harmony

Key question: How can acceptance of beliefs shine a light in our city of London?

Title of artwork: A City of Many Beliefs

School Value: Respect

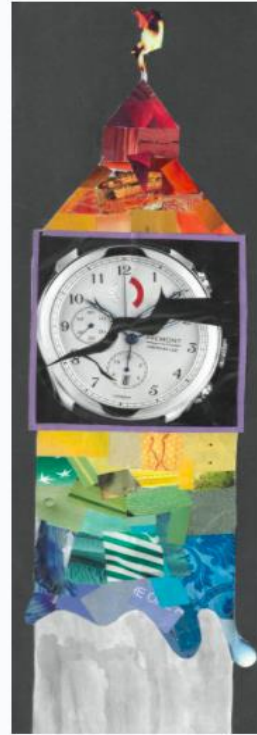

British Value: Tolerance

Carterhatch
Junior School

Year 6 - Harmony

A City of Many Beliefs

Let's Reflect - Your rights

- It is your right to have a faith or to believe what you choose.
- Today will be a chance for you to celebrate both Children's Day and Interfaith Day by expressing, sharing and celebrating your beliefs.

Inter Faith
Week

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6a8F28WVXIk>